Please can I remind you of the importance of students returning to school wearing correct uniform -as detailed in the school planner.

Aston Manor Academy welcomes the voice of parents in improving our school and we have arranged more parent meetings for Tuesday 30th April from 9.30 – 10.30a.m and Thursday 16th May from 9.30 – 10.30a.m. All parents are welcome to attend, this enables us to listen to the views of our parents and inform our governing body of your views.

As always, can I remind you to speak to your children about staying safe over the holidays, this is now more important than ever taking into consideration recent events in the news. I would also encourage you to be aware of your child's mobile phone use and to have conversations with your children about responsible use of social media.

As we approach GCSE and A-level exams please encourage revision at home, this time can often be the most important in making the difference to final grades. The school will be open for several days over the holidays, a timetable will be sent out separately for year 11 and 13 and it will also be available on the school website.

Thank you for all of your support this term, and I hope that you enjoy a good Easter break. I look forward to all students returning ready to start the summer term refreshed and ready to work hard.

Yours sincerely
