

AMA's Top Ten Covid Can-do's:

Things to do when you need a break from studying!

1. Visit a museum (Virtually):

<https://museummum.com/2020/03/21/covid-culture/>

2. Visit the zoo (Virtually):

<https://www.edinburghzoo.org.uk/webcams/panda-cam/>

3. Carry out a science experiment:

<http://www.sciencekids.co.nz/>

4. Save the planet:

<https://www.natgeokids.com/uk/kids-club/cool-kids/general-kids-club/how-to-make-paper-straws/>

5. Spread joy:

Place images of the themes below in your windows on the set dates:

6. Do some planting:

Even if you only have a small outside space or balcony, you can grow herbs that the whole family can enjoy! Ask your parents to collect provisions for you when they next go out for food.

7. Keep a diary:

This is a very strange time indeed and in years to come you will be talking about it, maybe with your own children. Imagine capturing your history in a diary you could share with them.

8. Stay fit:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Rz0go1pTda8>

9. Learn to cook:

<https://www.bbcgoodfood.com/howto/guide/recipes-teenagers>

10. Learn to code:

<https://scratch.mit.edu/about/>