Think Piece: Following Boris' speech last night it is clear that life in lockdown is going to change – but only slightly. NO FIRM DATE has been set about a return to school. When we do come back, how we work and study could look very different to what we were used to before lockdown. As more details become clear you should continue to ensure that you are staying active, healthy and engaged in your studies. This will leave you in the strongest possible position to succeed when we do eventually return.

Stay Motivated! Stay Informed! Stay Safe!

Make sure you visit the school website for weekly updates from our Headteacher!

Over the last few weeks we've been sharing our AMA Characteristics. Take a moment to think how much you've utilised these during the lockdown – and just how important they are in maximising your potential!
